

MAY IS Asian Pacific American Month

Special places to visit in the park...

Grace Quan

Chinese Shrimp Junk

LOCATION: Hyde Street Pier

Look for Grace Quan tied up at the pier, or sailing on the bay. Traditional shrimp junks were built locally by 19th century Chinese immigrants who fished in San Francisco and San Pablo Bay.

DID YOU KNOW? You can explore the site of a Chinese fishing village at China Camp State Park in San Rafael (a short ride north). Open daily.

Chinatown

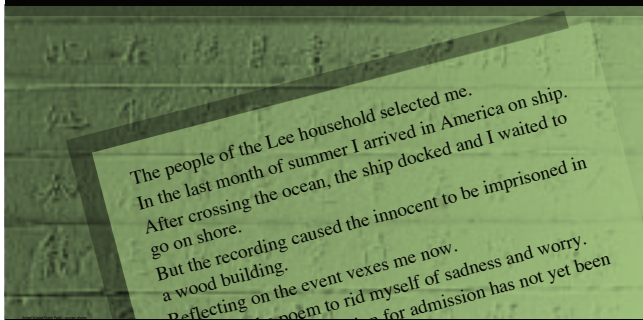

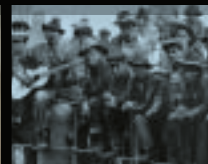

Aboard a Square Rigger!

LOCATION: Ship Balclutha

Cargo Is King!

Exhibit Open Daily

Descend below deck and go inside the living quarters of the "China gang" (mostly Chinese, Japanese, Filipinos and Blacks) who sailed on Balclutha (renamed Star of Alaska) to work in Alaskan canneries.

In Search of Gold Mountain

LOCATION: Visitor Center Voyages exhibit (you are here)

19th century Chinese immigrants crossed the Pacific in search of the mythic "Gold Mountain". Explore these and other stories from a variety of Asian immigrants.

DID YOU KNOW? You can see Angel Island, in the middle of San Francisco Bay, where Chinese immigrants from the 19th and early 20th century were detained. Angel Island State Park access is by ferry only. Open daily.
